

To Whom It May Concern:

May 28, 2018

Michael Di Martino facilitated a drum group with our clients last week. We all thoroughly enjoyed it.

Michael was sensitive to the needs of our clients as they each experience a mental disability. He asked them appropriate questions, recognized different individual needs and structured the group activity in a way that worked for everybody.

Most importantly, Michael was relaxed, funny and fun! The clients followed his lead and everyone had a great time. It was a joy to watch both clients and staff enjoying themselves!

We highly recommend him. You're welcome to call me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Jenny Gray
